

The 7 Archangels

The role of the Archangels – overview

Angels are interwoven within the culture of man. Regardless of religion or belief system, stories of angels are a part of our heritage, of the fabric that makes up human history. Recent surveys say that up to eighty-five percent of American adults believe in angels. Often references to angels refer specifically to Archangels.

Archangels are considered to very powerful spiritual beings that have captured our attention for centuries. The prefix 'arch' means ruling or chief in Greek. Religious texts refer to archangels as being at a high level in the celestial hierarchy. While the exact number of archangels is unknown many traditions and faiths reference seven archangels. Who these seven are is also a source of debate varying from faith to faith. Many scriptures tell of the archangel's great abilities as healers and guides, intervening with assistance in many of life's challenging situations.

Find Your Archangel

Archangels: Directing God's Hands and Feet on Earth

Archangels (pronounced ark-angels) are a group of heavenly beings in the Celestial Choir hierarchy.

What are the Celestial Choirs?

The nine celestial choirs are groups of beings who do God/Goddesses work and sing his praises. Archangels are just on the second rung of this hierarchical ladder.

The celestial choir of Angels are on the first rung of the ladder, then just above them are the Archangels. The third rung is the celestial choir of Principalities, then there is the choir of Virtues. Above them is the celestial choir of Powers and then Dominions. Next is the choir of Thrones and then there are the Cherubim. The highest choir is the Seraphim, who are in the closest proximity to God, you may remember learning about them in the Angelic Practitioner course.

It's likely that we hear more about angels than any other choir because their job is to help us, so they are closest to our earthly level. The choir of angels is divided into bands, each with an archangel in charge.

The Seven Archangels

As you may have noticed, heaven is very organized, and it won't surprise you to know that heavenly beings all have a specific job to do. Each of these magnificent beings serve on a certain ray (aspect of God). They also have spiritual retreats or homes in the etheric realm (heaven-world) above certain powerful places on earth. Here's a summary of the seven that we will be working with, there are more but these 7 ask to be included in this healing modality.

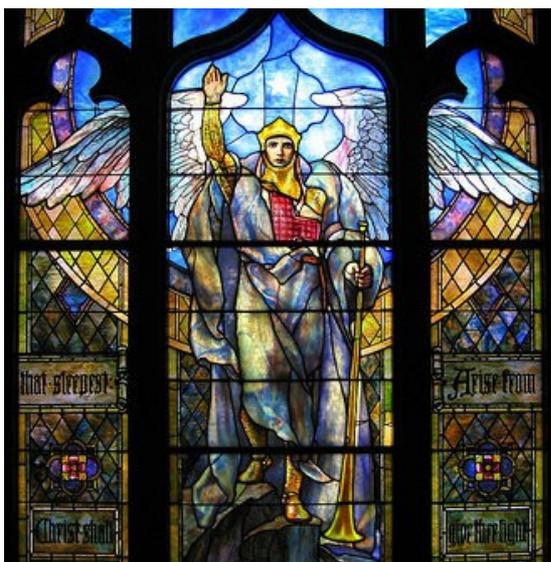

1. Michael is the captain of all the angels and archangels. He serves on God's blue ray which is the ray of protection. You can ask him for both physical and spiritual protection. This includes protection from accidents, crime, psychic aggression and even demons.
2. Jophiel serves on the yellow ray of illumination. Why not ask him to help you absorb information when you are studying and when you need wisdom?
3. Chamuel serves on the pink ray of spiritual love. Ask him to help you resolve relationship problems, find a job... and also to locate a lost object! So you could ask him to tell you where your keys are when you are rushing for work.
4. Gabriel is probably the most well-known. Christians teach that he told Mary she would give birth to the baby Jesus and Muslims believe he dictated the Qur'an to Mohamed. He serves on the white ray of purity. Ask him to help you establish discipline and order in your life.

5. Raphael serves on the green ray of divine healing. Ask him for the healing of your body, mind soul and spirit. He is also helpful when you need to have your physical needs met such as food, clothing, shelter and tools of your trade.
6. Uriel serves on the ray of peace. This ray is purple, and gold flecked with ruby. Next time you are having a disagreement with someone why not ask him for help in creating a peaceful resolution?
7. Zadkiel serves on the violet ray of forgiveness. Ask him to help you if you are having a problem with this, and also with tolerance and diplomacy. He will help you bring joy back to your life if you ask him.

Archangel Uriel: Bringer of Peace

Archangel Uriel and his consort Aurora work to bring peace to this world.

'Uriel' means Flame of God and in order to have peace the archangels sometimes have to make war for the binding of fallen angels. Their angels are so large and powerful they can dissolve problem situations with the light of their wonderful smiles.

Archangel Uriel is a great help when you or your world are in a turmoil. If you ask him he can bring you inner peace, tranquillity of spirit and the renewal of hope.

He helps by untangling the knots of anger and fear in your psyche.

Angel of Peace

You can ask him to help bring peaceful resolution to your problems in personal, social and professional relationships. He will help create a harmonious environment for nurturing creativity and growth.

He can also be called upon for the ending of war, bringing of peace and promoting brotherhood and understanding. He is waiting to be asked to help with the manifestation of divine justice in courtrooms and between nations.

Uriel serves on God's sixth ray of ministration and service, which is the most multi-coloured of the rays (energy streams), being purple and gold flecked with ruby.

He can be an inspiration and help for anyone who serves others such as nurses, doctors, hospice workers, counsellors, teachers, judges and public servants. However, as with all the angels, he can only help when he is asked because he must respect the free will that God gave to mankind.

It is important to remember, because I don't want you getting discouraged, that when you call to him for divine justice, his answer may not be immediate. But please be assured that by your call the process will have begun. It will be fulfilled in God's time, though you may not know the outcome yourself.

Archangel Uriel in History

Archangel Uriel is not named in the Bible, but you will find him in other Christian and Jewish texts. He is mentioned in the book of Enoch as one of the four archangels who guided Enoch on his journeys through heaven and the underworld. He is also said to have warned Noah of the impending flood.

Uriel and Aurora have their etheric retreat, a focus of light above the beautiful Tatra Mountains, south of Krakow in Poland. It is interesting that Uriel is also the angel of the resurrection flame which brings renewal, rebirth and rejuvenation for us. Well, you know that the phoenix is a symbol of rebirth, and would you believe it, the phoenix bird is on the Polish coat of arms! How amazing is that?

I just love these "coincidences".

Green Healing Flame

Have you ever walked through a green and leafy wood and felt the healing balm of the greenness all around you? Have you noticed the doctor's flashing light is green? And the cross on a first aid box is often green too?

Have you noticed that statues of Archangel Raphael usually have him wearing green? This is because he serves on God's fifth ray, the green ray of healing.

Very appropriately, his name means 'God has healed' or 'The Medicine of God!' I think it is wonderful how we pick up on these spiritual cues without realizing it.

Raphael serves with his consort Mary, Queen of Angels. Mary took embodiment as the mother of Jesus while Raphael overshadowed her from above in that important mission. How about that? When I first heard that Mother Mary was an angel it blew me away!

As well as the healing of mind, body, soul and spirit, you can ask him to help you meet physical needs such as food, clothing, shelter and tools of your trade! He will help with both traditional and alternative medicine if you ask.

.Archangel Raphael not only helps in healing individuals but also helps healers in their healing practice. He can help reduce addictions and cravings and is powerful in healing other injuries and illnesses, with cures often occurring immediately. Archangel Raphael aids in restoring and maintaining harmony and peace. He is also the patron of travelers, watching over them to ensure a safe and harmonious journey. Working in conjunction with Archangel Michael, Archangel Raphael helps to clear away fears and stressors that maybe adversely affecting your health.

Archangel Raphael and Music

Archangel Raphael will also give inspiration for the study and practice of music. Handel's Messiah is a very uplifting piece of music and it's no wonder, because Raphael inspired the composer to write it. If you are a mathematician or scientist, or even having problems studying these subjects at school, you can ask this versatile archangel to overshadow you because two other areas on earth he has charge of are mathematics and science.

On the world scene you can ask Raphael to repair rifts between nations and heal those injured on the battle field. He also inspires new cures for diseases.

Angel of Truth

He will help you, if you ask him, to discern spiritual and human truth. If you know someone is not being honest in a situation you can ask Raphael to expose the truth. God's fifth ray, which is the ray that Raphael works on, is also the ray (vibration) of truth, wholeness and vision.

Archangel Gabriel: The Announcer

Archangel Gabriel is possibly the second most famous of the archangels, after Archangel Michael. His name means 'God is my strength'.

He seems to have been given the job of announcing information and is mentioned in the texts of several religions.

In the Talmud, a Jewish text, he tells Noah to gather the animals in anticipation of the great flood. Muslims believe he told Mohamed the information that he later put into the Qur'an.

The Christian Bible reports him giving several messages including telling Mary that she would give birth to Jesus. Gabriel is even mentioned in a text of the Bahai faith.

Together with his feminine counterpart, the archaea Hope, he serves on the white ray of guidance, purity and joy.

How Can Archangel Gabriel Help You?

Before you were born, your Higher Self, together with a board of spiritual beings worked out a life plan for you. Gabriel will remind you at inner levels what this was.

Thinking of buying a new home? Or maybe deciding what direction you need to take in your education or career? Archangel Gabriel is the one to ask for guidance. He will also help you to keep on track by fighting discouragement, ridicule and helping with lack of money and resources.

If you tend to be a scattered person you can ask Gabriel for help with establishing discipline and organization in your life.

She helps writers, teachers, journalists and artists to convey their message, to find motivation and confidence, and to market their skills. She also assists in overcoming issues of fear and procrastination in communication as well as in all areas related to children, helping during conception, pregnancy, childbirth and child rearing.

"I am here, and I shall not leave you...until you have fulfilled your reason for being."

~Archangel Gabriel

Gabriel the Angel of Annunciation greeted Mary with the words, "Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women." But he salutes each mother-to-be with the glad tidings.

Archangel Michael has so many names!

Michael is the archangel of the first ray of protection, faith and the will of God. He is the Prince of the Archangels and of the Angelic Hosts, the Defender of the Faith, the Angel of Deliverance and his divine complement is Archaea Faith. The Book of Daniel calls him "the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people." Archangel Michael is the sponsor of police departments and law enforcement agencies around the world.

Archangel Michael has figured as the greatest and most revered of angels in many scriptures and spiritual traditions. In Muslim lore, he is the angel of nature who provides both food and knowledge to man. Archangel Michael is identified with the angel who wrestled with Jacob, destroyed the armies of Sennacherib and saved the three Hebrew boys in the fiery furnace in Jewish mystical tradition. Archangel Michael also appears in the Bible as the angel who appeared to Joshua as he prepared to lead the Israelites in battle at Jericho.

All archangels have a 'line of work' as it were, called a ray of God, and Michael is of the first ray, which is the blue ray of power, protection, faith and the will of God.

He will protect you if you ask him

Archangel Michael assists situations where you are afraid, confused or concerned for your safety. He helps to release fear and doubt and supports us in making life changes and is often said to work closely with those who perform healing work or provide spiritual teaching. He can even fix mechanical and electrical problems! Additional areas where Archangel Michael can be of assistance include courage, direction, energy and vitality, all aspects of life purpose, motivation, space clearing, spirit releasement, worthiness and self-esteem.

The Boys in Blue

Blue is the colour of protection. St Michael is the sponsor of the police force - our "thin blue line." Do you think it is a coincidence that emergency vehicles have blue flashing lights?

His divine compliment is the Archeia Faith (a female archangel, if you will) and she works with him in helping to free people from the negative facets of life.

Archangel Michael and his legions daily descend into the astral plane fully arrayed in their mighty blue armor, carrying their shields and swords of blue flame. There they cut free those who have passed from the screen of life and who are unable to rise to higher octaves of service and the retreats of the masters. He and his angels of deliverance work twenty-four hours a day on these levels rescuing souls from the accumulation of their own human creation over the centuries and also from the projections of the dark ones. They have served there for many ages, and Michael says that he is determined to never give up until the last child of light on this planet has risen to the God Source in the ritual of the ascension.

If you want to feel closer to Archangel Michael you can play his keynote music, which is 'The Navy Hymn' ('Eternal Father, Strong to Save').

Archangel Jophiel: The Wise One

Archangel Jophiel and Christine are the archangel and archaean of the second ray of wisdom and illumination. These twin flames amplify the Christ consciousness within angels, elementals and men. Jophiel and Christine serve with the World Teachers, Jesus and Kuthumi, to illumine mankind's understanding of cosmic law. The name Jophiel means "beauty of God."

Etheric Retreat of Archangel Jophiel

The spiritual retreat of Archangel Jophiel and Christine is in the etheric realm over the plains of Central China, south of the Great Wall near Lanchow. From the yellow flame of illumination focused here since the first golden ages have come the wisdom of Confucius, Lao-tse and the civilizations of ancient China. The wisdom of ancient China reached great heights long before there was even a stirring of culture in the West.

Angels of Wisdom and the Educational System

Archangel Jophiel is specifically concerned about education. His angels are relentless in their warfare against ignorance, mental density and mediocrity as these affect the minds of educators and students and lower school standards. He says that these negative attitudes “detract from the crispness of the Christ-qualities that belong to and are the inheritance of the children of the Sun.”

The Archaea Christine says, “Call to me to intercede before the Cosmic Christ in your behalf to release advanced teaching methods to the parents, teachers and sponsors of youth. Will you not pray that the World Teachers and the hierarchies of illumination might release to instructors in every field, as well as to yourselves, new and advanced methods of teaching all subjects. There is so much more we can deliver to those who will listen.”

Jophiel will teach you how you can commune with the mind of God and experience self-knowledge. The angels of wisdom are ready and waiting to help you, at your signal, to absorb the elements of the mind of God. Archangel Jophiel once remarked,

“Do you know that a single mind, transformed by the mind of Christ, is a catalyst for quickening the minds of the population of an entire planet? That is what the Christ incarnate, the Buddha incarnate, can do.”

Archangel Zadkiel and Holy Amethyst

Archangel Zadkiel and his twin flame, Holy Amethyst, are the archangels of the seventh ray. Together with the violet-flame angels, they serve mankind from the Temple of Purification.

The Temple of Purification, once physical, is now in the etheric realm over the island of Cuba. Priests of the sacred fire on Atlantis took their training under the order of Lord Zadkiel here, and their service to life drew the momentum that prevented the island from sinking.

Archangel Zadkiel and Holy Amethyst embody God's freedom, alchemy, transmutation, forgiveness and justice, the very same qualities embodied by Saint Germain and his twin flame. Their work corresponds to the seat-of-the-soul chakra, and their colour is violet. The day of the seventh ray is Saturday, which means we can receive a greater release of light, energy and cosmic consciousness from the causal bodies of Zadkiel and Amethyst on that day.

The name Zadkiel means "righteousness of God." In rabbinic tradition, Zadkiel is known as the angel of benevolence, mercy and memory. In some traditions, he was the angel who held back Abraham's hand when Abraham was about to sacrifice his son Isaac. Holy Amethyst, Zadkiel's divine complement, was one of the angels who ministered to Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Violet Flame, Karma and Freedom

Violet Flame to Heal Body, Mind and Soul Zadkiel and Holy Amethyst are here to help us secure our individual freedom so that when we are free, we can free our households, our towns, our nations, our planet. The main block to our freedom is our negative karma. We can transmute it with the violet-flame decrees. We can also balance negative karma by sending forth divine love and compassionately—human love and calling upon the law of mercy and forgiveness.

Archangel Zadkiel describes what he and the ascended hosts see when a devotee of God calls forth the sacred fire of the violet flame:

"We see from inner levels the tremendous effort you make to transmute the layers upon layers of karma you have made in this and past lives. It is truly a marvellous thing for us to behold. In one moment you sit surrounded with every kind of negative thought revolving in your aura. In the next, you decide to invoke the violet flame.

"And lo! the mighty power of the seventh ray, as a giant electrode of cosmic energy, begins to form around your person. The violet-flame angels gather around you. With palms outstretched, they direct across your four lower bodies and your aura an arc of the violet ray. As that arc flashes across your being, it vaporizes the negative conditions. They literally disappear from heart and mind!"

Zadkiel refers to the violet flame as the universal solvent that the alchemists have sought throughout the ages. In a fore-runner to modern chemistry, medieval alchemists sought to transmute base metals into gold and to discover a universal cure for disease and a means of prolonging life. In a broader sense, alchemy is defined as “a power or process of transforming something common into something special” or “an inexplicable or mysterious transmuting.” Spiritual alchemy is the science of self-transformation.

Archangel Zadkiel says: “I possess in my heart the secrets of alchemy. Invoke them, if you will. And I shall release them to you in answer to your call.”

Amethyst Crystals Focus Freedom's Flame

Through the amethyst crystal, the twin flame of Lord Zadkiel focuses the mother aspect of freedom to the evolutions of this planet. The amethyst is worn by all who serve on the seventh ray and their devotees. All jewels are actually precipitates or condensations of the flame that the jewel focuses. Thus, the amethyst is the focus of the freedom flame, and those jewels that have been consecrated by light bearers contain in the centre a replica of the flame that they represent.

The musical keynote of Holy Amethyst is the On The Beautiful Blue Danube, by Johann Strauss.

Archangel Chamuel: The Loving One

Archangel Chamuel's name comes from the verb lenachem in Hebrew, which means comfort and compassion. Another interpretation of the name Chamuel is 'He who sees God'. I imagine that what Archangel Chamuel sees is really the aspect of God that is love because he is the archangel of the pink ray of divine love.

His archaean goes by the name of Charity. I wonder if this is why the word 'charity' means love? Together they have an etheric retreat above St Louis, Missouri in the USA.

His mission is to bring peace to the world and as such he protects the world from fear and lowers vibrating, negative energies. He is believed to have all knowing vision seeing the interconnectedness between all things. Archangel Chamuel assists us in finding the strength and courage to face adversity when it seems we have none left.

What does Archangel Chamuel Do?

Anyway, as all archangels do, Chamuel and Charity have their specialities, their role or job for God. These include love, compassion, mercy, creativity and forgiveness. If you ask Chamuel he will help you with dissolving feelings of selfishness, self-dislike, self-condemnation and low self-esteem. He will even help you prepare to receive the Holy Spirit.

Archangel Chamuel is very useful in helping with relationships, finding new friends, repairing damaged relationships and generally getting along with others. You can ask him for protection against malice, slander and misunderstanding.

You can even ask for help in finding things like a job, lost objects or a parking place. I often ask for help in finding things I have mislaid. After I have said something like "Archangel Chamuel, please help me find [whatever it is I've lost]", my eyes are often drawn to the object, or I decide to look under the very thing that is hiding it.

When you are concerned about ethnic and racial tension in your neighbourhood or around the world, Chamuel is just waiting for your call to saturate the area with love.

Love, of course, is often gentle - think of the tender love of a mother. However, it can also be fierce. Chamuel puts on his ruby ray armour to fight the forces of anti-love. These forces can manifest as cruelty, hatred, addictions, depression and compulsive behaviour.

Chamuel is a wiz at improving communications between people. So, if you are concerned about having a successful meeting, or your children are squabbling, or you're not getting along with someone, try asking for help in your daily prayers.

Lastly, Archangel Chamuel also helps to heal anxiety, bring peace, and to repair relationships and misunderstandings.
